

Commercial Finance Company

We are currently hiring two Account Managers and are looking for candidates who have the right stuff.

We are having our best year ever and will need to bring on a few more strong closers to continue this momentum.

Do you consider yourself to be strong-willed, forceful, determined and persuasive?

Would you be making more money if you were given more responsibility for developing your own plan for success and not being micromanaged along the way, knowing that results are what is important?

IT'S NOT HARD TO SUCCEED, ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS... Walk on eggshells. Tame vicious animals, Juggle flaming clients. And laugh all the way to the bank.

If you're independent, enthusiastic, convincing, smart, ethical, a little bit crazy- and a really customer-friendly phone machine who obliterates your quota. We may be the right fit for you. We are a commercial finance company providing working capital and equipment financing to small and mid-sized businesses throughout the USA. We will help you move your career forward in a stable environment that will help you earn excellent commissions. The workplace is an environment where your income is a direct reflection of your sales ability, determination and desire to succeed. This position is for winners and those who believe in themselves.

We have been in business since 1995 and have enjoyed success every year due to our strong sales team and their support staff. Last year our top reps earned between $108,000 and $350,000 annually (best individual month was $46,000). We have three levels of earnings packages from two salary options that include commission and bonus to a straight commission structure you can move into anytime after your initial three to six months of building up your pipeline which also includes bonus opportunities (should I mention what the salary numbers are here or leave it open like it is?). Our top producer has worked in a variety of industries with various titles and says "if you think you can earn this kind of money in a typical corporate environment there are very few opportunities like this that are real and sustainable that support you in your effort to continually increase your earnings".

If the chance to earn big market commissions while working in a family friendly environment appeals to you, contact us now.
